IN THE MATTER OF THE "BENEVOLENT SOCIETIES ACT."

CANADA.
BRITISH COLUMBIA.
To Wit:

RESOLUTIONS having been passed by a majority of the members at general meetings, specially called for that purpose, of Granville Lodge, No. 3, Knights of Pythias, Vancouver, B. C., and of Crusader Lodge No. 19, Knights of Pythias, respectively, to unite each with the other, in one consolidated Society to be known as Vancouver Lodge, No. 3, Knights of Pythias, Vancouver, B. C., upon the terms that the said Vancouver Lodge shall assume all the liabilities and assets of the said Granville Lodge and the said Crusader Lodge, and for the purposes hereinafter set forth, we, the undersigned, being the officers of the said Granville Lodge and the said Crusader Lodge as hereinafter designated, and members of the said Vancouver Lodge, hereby declare that it is our intention to incorporate the said Vancouver Lodge under the provisions of the "Benevolent Societies Act."

1. The intended corporate name of the Society is "Vancouver Lodge, No. 3, Knights of Pythias, Vancouver, B. C."

2. The purposes of the Society are:—To inculcate the principles of true friendship among its members; to afford them and theirs special relief in time of distress, accident or emergency; to provide its members with a system of sick and funeral benefits, and generally for benevolent, friendly and moral objects, and to do all things incidental to carrying out the purposes of the Society not contrary to law.

3. The Trustees of the Society shall be John G. Garvin, John E. Evans and Sidney Halls, all of the City of Vancouver, and their successors shall be elected on the first Wednesday of January in each year, in accordance with the by-laws of the Society.

Signed, sealed and severally declared before me at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, this 13th day of January, A.D. 1905.

[L.S.] CECIL KILLAM,

A Notary Public in and for British Columbia.

I hereby certify that the foregoing declaration appears to me to be in conformity with the provisions of the "Benevolent Societies Act."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Vancouver Hasty Messenger Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares of one dollar each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 30th day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five.

[L. S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business undertakings and other properties in connection with the Hasty Messenger Service carried on by Messrs. Foote & McMillan in Vancouver, and to carry on the business of messenger service in all its branches; also to carry on the business of fire and burglar alarm, police patrol, office security and other services of a similar nature; and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the said business :

(b.) To enter into any arrangement with any Governments or authorities, national, state, Dominion, Provincial, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, to carry out, exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(c.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, and calculated directly or indirectly to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(d.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, assets and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same either in cash or in shares of the capital stock of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such shares:

(e.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, to hold, sell, assign, transfer, mortgage, pledge or otherwise dispose of shares of the capital stock and bonds, debentures or other evidences of indebtedness created by other corporation or corporations, and while the holder thereof to exercise all the rights and privileges of ownership, including the right to vote thereon:

(f.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities, and in such manner as the Company may see fit:

(g.) To borrow or raise, or secure payment of money in such manner as the Board of Directors may see fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's properties (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of this Company:

(i.) To do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or for the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the corporation, either as holders of or interested in any property or otherwise:

(j.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any foreign country or place: fe2

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the “Bourne Macdonald Moscrop Company, Limited,” has this day been incorporated under the “Companies Act, 1897,” as a Limited Company, with a capital of seventy-five thousand dollars, divided into seven hundred and fifty shares of one hundred dollars each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 27th day of January, one thousand nine hundred and five.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire, purchase and take over the assets, whether consisting of real or personal property, belonging to the mercantile businesses carried on at Revelstoke, B. C., by Bourne Bros., J. G. Macdonald and Moscrop Bros., and to acquire the business, good-will and assets of every kind connected with the said businesses, or any of them, and to pay for the same in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in fully paid-up shares, or otherwise, as may be agreed upon:

(b.) To conduct and carry on a general mercantile business in all its branches, and in particular to buy, sell, manufacture, exchange and deal in (at wholesale or retail or both), groceries, provisions, produce, consumable articles and foodstuffs, dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, trunks, valises, furniture, furnishings, hardware, crockery, jewellery, miners' supplies, machinery, drags, stationery, fruits, confectionery, fancy goods, novelties, tobaccos, wines, liquors and cigars, and any and all other articles of merchandise; and to carry on the business of commission merchants, or any other business which may be conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects for which the Company is formed, and to act as financial and insurance agents, estate agents and brokers, and dealers in all kinds of property on agency terms:

(c.) To carry on the business of hardware merchants, tinsmiths, plumbers, electricians, builders, contractors, manufacturers of hardware of any description or kind, foundry men, machinists, fitters, lumbermen, millmen, lumber manufacturers and miners, and to instal, manufacture and deal in all kinds of lighting and heating plants, whether gas, electric or otherwise, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(d.) To purchase, take on lease or exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, or to make advances in cash, goods or other supplies to other persons, companies or firms, and to take and hold real and personal securities for the same:

(e.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(f.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm or association or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and as the consideration of the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(g.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(h.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit the Company:

(j.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, or any interest therein, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business:

(k.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose to mortgage or charge the undertaking, or all or any part of the property of the Company present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(l.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other Company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit the Company:

(m.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(n.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(o.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other Company:

(p.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them. fe2

PRIVATE BILLS.

NOTICE is hereby given that application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, at its next session, for an Act to incorporate a Company with power to carry on the business of a General Trust Company, and in particular and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, with power to take, receive and hold all estates and property, real and personal, which may be granted, committed, transferred or conveyed to the Company, with its consent, upon any trust or trusts whatsoever (not contrary to law), at any time or times, to any person or persons, body or bodies corporate, or by any Court of the Province of British Columbia; to take and receive on deposit, upon such terms and for such remuneration as may be agreed upon, deeds, wills, policies of insurance, bonds, debentures or other valuable papers or securities for money, jewellery, plate or other chattel property of any kind and to guarantee the safe keeping of the same:

To act generally as attorney or agent for the transaction of business, the management of estates, the collection of loans, rents, interests, dividends, debts, mortgages, debentures, bonds, bills, notes, coupons, and other securities for money:

To act as agent for the purpose of issuing or countersigning certificates of stock, bond or other obligations of any association or corporation, municipal or other:

To receive, invest and manage any sinking fund therefor, on such terms as may be agreed upon:

To accept and execute the offices of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, and guardian of any minor's estate or committee of any lunatic's estate; and the Supreme Court or any Judge thereof, and every other Court or Judge having authority to appoint an officer to execute any of said offices, may, with the consent of the Company, appoint the Company to exercise any of the said offices in respect of any estate or person under the authority of such Court or Judge, or may grant to such Company probate of any will in which such Company is named as executor, and to be sole trustee, notwithstanding that but for this Act incorporating said Company it would be necessary to appoint more than one such trustee, and to be appointed trustee jointly with another person and to accept and execute any such office of executor, administrator, trustee, receiver, assignee, guardian or committee, without giving any security for the due performance of its duties, notwithstanding any rule of practice or any provision of any Act requiring such security; to accept the duty of and act generally in the winding up of estates, partnerships, companies and corporations:

To guarantee any investments made by them as agents or otherwise:

To sell, pledge, or mortgage any mortgage or other security or any other real or personal property held by the Company from time to time, and to make and execute all requisite conveyances and assurances in respect thereof:

To make, enter into, deliver, accept and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the said Company, and to promote the objects and business of the said Company:

And without giving the security mentioned in section 4 of the Official Administrators' Act, to be appointed to and accept and execute the office of an Official Administrator under said Act for any one or more of the counties in said Province:

And to act as agent for the investment of funds in Court and the sinking funds of Municipalities:

And to amalgamate with any other company having powers wholly or in part similar to the powers of this Company, upon receiving the assent of two-thirds of the shareholders of this Company and the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

And for all such services, duties and trusts to charge, collect and receive all proper remuneration, legal, usual and customary costs, charges and expenses.

And with further powers to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the exercise of the above powers, or any of them.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 31st day of January, 1905.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the “British North America Act, 1867,” whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one news paper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending a petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A, passed on the 2nd April, 1901 (see Journals, 1901, page 58), a model form of Railway Bill is adopted.

By 65B all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Dated 5th November, 1901.
